Candy Cigarettes. Years ago, it was "cool" as a kid to have this candy. Nowadays, many parents rebel at the thought of their kids enjoying it. As a result, to be more "PC," the manufacturers have begun to call these Candy Sticks. But whatever they are called, they are still fun to eat! - There are 24 packs to each box. A pack contains from 8 to 12 candy sticks.Note that due to the fragile nature of the candy, some sticks arrive broken. This is a result of the packaging and cannot be helped.
